Byrd Is Ready To Seek Split

Wants Ike's Resolution Put Before Senate in Two Parts

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2 (AP)—Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) said today he is determined to try to split President Eisenhower's Middle East resolution into two separate sections: military and economic. He said this determination has not been altered by administration acceptance of amendments he suggested.

Byrd, a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said that despite lengthy explanations by Secretary of State Dulles, the President's program to buttress the Middle East against communism remains "cloudy and confused."

US Agents Seek Basis For Crash

Wreck of Airliner Near LaGuardia Airport Kills 20

NEW YORK, Feb. 2 (AP)—A Miami-bound airliner carrying 102 persons crashed on Rikers Island last night just 12 seconds after takeoff. Today government agencies responsible for air safety moved in to find out why.

Twenty persons died last night in the grinding, flaming crash in a driving snowstorm. Of the 82 who got out alive, 64 were hospitalized, some with serious injuries and burns. The rest were virtually unharmed.

Six federal and local agencies started investigations of the accident. The FBI, as a "mission of mercy," offered any help it could give, such as identifying burned victims through fingerprints.

How did it happen? The dazed pilot, Capt. Alva Marsh, 49, said: "I just couldn't get her up. Her power just drained out, but none of the instruments showed it. She just wouldn't go up."

"I could feel something was wrong, however, on the controls, and it was confirmed by the shudder of the plane at takeoff."

In the fleeting second before the plane struck, co-pilot Basil Dixwell shouted "Ground coming up..." That was all he had time for.

Some crew members, all of whom survived, thought the airliner struck a pole on Rikers Island as it swooped low, fighting for altitude.

Was the plane overloaded? The DC6A's are rated to carry about 100 passengers. Six of these aboard were babies or youngsters in arms, and did not count as seat passengers. One child was killed.

The plane had waited for 3 hours and 15 minutes before it finally got clearance from the tower and roared down the runway into the snow-lashed night air. Others scheduled airlines also were operating at the time.

Passengers, dreaming of baking on Miami sands the next day, grew uneasy during the long wait for better weather.

Meantime the plane was taken back into a hangar to have its wings de-iced. An alcohol-type antifreeze was used.

Some advanced the theory that engine exhausts might have ignited this substance while the plane was in flight. The liner was equipped also with heated boots on the wings for de-icing while airborne.

The agencies probing the accident were the Civil Aeronautics Administration, the New York City Police and Fire Departments, the Bronx district attorney's office and Northeast Airlines itself.

Bedwell Freed on Bail In Grimes Death Case

FBI Chief Hits Easy Treatment

Says 'Young Thugs' Should Be Dealt With More Severely

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2 (AP)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover lit into teen-age criminals today, saying "the present appalling youth situation" is the "crux of our crime problem."

Hoover advocated publicizing the names of "young thugs." He said the major problem "is no longer one of bad children but of young criminals" and added:

"Recent happenings in juvenile crime shatter the illusion that soft-hearted criminals today, saying 'the present appalling youth situation' is the 'crux of our crime problem.'"

In a signed editorial in the February issue of the FBI's law enforcement bulletin, the chief G-man said:

"Are we to stand idly by while fierce young hoodlums—too often and too long harbored under the glossy misnomer of juvenile delinquents—roam our streets and desecrate our communities? If we do, America might well witness a resurgence of the brutal criminality and mobsterism of a past era."

"Gang-style ferocity—once the evil domain of hardened adult criminals—now centers chiefly in cliques of teen-age brigands. Their individual and gang exploits rival the savagery of the veteran desperadoes of bygone days."

Hoover cited as "not isolated instances" last year's confessions by a band of 15-to-17-year-olds in Michigan to more than 30 crimes, including rape and murder. The implication of three teen-agers in a Louisiana housebreak—murder; and the actions of a 14-year-old Maryland school boy in fatally shooting his teacher and wounding two other persons in a classroom outbreak.

In the past four years, while population in the 10 to 17 age group has gone up approximately 10 per cent, arrests of individuals in these same age brackets have increased at twice that rate," Hoover said.

"The present appalling youth situation—the crux of our crime problem—demands a vigorous new appraisal. No longer can we tolerate the 'tender years' alibi for youthful lawbreaking. This is

Names 3 Candidates For KC Appeals Judge

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 2 (AP)—The Appellate Judicial Commission today named two Kansas City attorneys and a circuit judge from Savannah, Mo., as candidates to replace Judge Samuel A. Dew on the Kansas City Court of Appeals.

Named were Judge Elmo B. Hunter of Jackson County's Circuit Court, third division; Circuit Judge Fred H. Daughmer of Savannah, Mo.; and J. Gordon Siddens of Kansas City.

Under Missouri's nonpartisan court plan, Gov. James T. Blair Jr. must choose one of the three to replace Judge Dew, who will quit Monday when he reaches the mandatory retirement age of 75.

Travel Together From Washington

President Eisenhower, Secretary Wilson Meet, Chat, Are 'Extremely Congenial'

AUGUSTA, Ga., Feb. 2 (AP)—President Eisenhower, Secretary of Defense Wilson and Mrs. Wilson, key figures in the buzzsaw National Guard controversy, chatted face to face today, reportedly in an "extremely congenial" manner.

They traveled together from Washington in the presidential plane Columbine III. But on landing here the uncertainty about whether Wilson will stay on as Defense Department chief still was almost as thick as the fog they flew through for two hours.

Murray Snyder, assistant White House press secretary, replied "No sir" when a reporter asked "has it been suggested to you" that Wilson may leave the Cabinet.

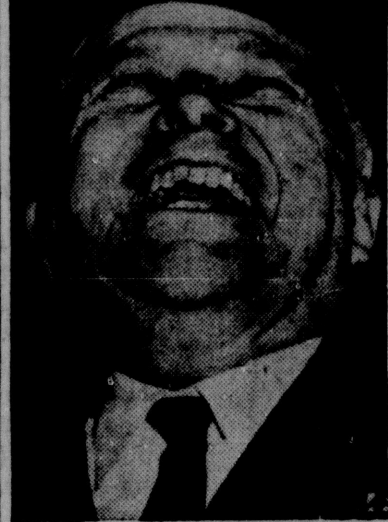

Asked then, whether Eisenhower would "welcome" Wilson's resignation, Snyder said:

"I haven't any comment on such a hypothesis."

Snyder recalled the President said 10 days ago—before the Guard controversy—that he had no plans for any Cabinet changes.

There were some indications, however, that the White House was attempting to quiet the storm which has raged since Wilson said last Monday there was draft dodging in National Guard enlistments during the Korean War.

Two days later Eisenhower called Wilson's assertion a "very unwise" statement. That was after Guard officials all around the country had lambasted Wilson.

ENJOYS JOKE—Secretary of Defense Wilson lets loose a loud guffaw as he jokes with photographers in Washington Friday. The remark that prompted this laugh was: "You can say anything you want to now, Mr. Secretary. There are no sound cameras." Wilson is in difficulty in some quarters over his repeated assertions that there was draft dodging among national guardsmen during the Korean War. (AP Wirephoto)

2 U. S. Tankers Collide, Kill 13

ST. LO, France, Feb. 2 (AP)—Two giant U. S. Air Force KB29 tanker planes collided in flight today almost three miles above the Norman countryside and plunged to earth spewing flames.

Thirteen crewmen were killed, five injured and one was missing hours after the planes broke violently apart 15,000 feet in the sky above the spot where Allied armies staged break through of German lines.

When Nicewarmer fired he shot at Loughridge's leg. The .38 caliber bullet struck Loughridge in the right leg, just below midway between the knee and ankle, shattering the shin bone.

He was rushed to the Bothwell Hospital in the Ewing ambulance where X-Ray pictures were taken and he was treated by Dr. Pete Siegel who attended him.

Officer Green and Nicewarmer in conducting further investigation according to their report, learned Loughridge and his wife, Betty Lou, 28, were going to the home of Mrs. Carl Powers, 407 South

Defiant Man Is Wounded By Policeman

Officer Fires Shot When Man Resists, Starts Swinging

Billie Eugene Loughridge, 28, of 1901 South Montauk, was seriously wounded about 8:12 o'clock Saturday night by Officer Clyde Nicewarmer, 1317 South Park, when he attacked the officer and resisted arrest. The incident occurred in front of 407 South Engineer.

Officer Nicewarmer and Officer James Green, 1126 Ware, were answering a disturbance call in the 400 block on South Engineer. Officers had been told by the police radio a man was beating his wife. They were at Saline and Engineer when the call was received and proceeded immediately to the scene.

When they arrived, they found Mrs. Loughridge lying on the sidewalk, apparently unconscious. As the officers approached, Loughridge cursed them and started swinging on them.

He first hit Officer Green who ducked and the blow struck him on the shoulder, knocking him to one side. Then with a flash he pounced on Nicewarmer and hit him on the right jaw knocking him sprawling to the ground. He started to rush Nicewarmer and was within three inches of him when the officer pulled his gun and fired.

As he was hitting the officers he was threatening to kill them both.

When Nicewarmer fired he shot at Loughridge's leg. The .38 caliber bullet struck Loughridge in the right leg, just below midway between the knee and ankle, shattering the shin bone.

Soil Bank Corn Payments Sign-up To Begin Feb. 4

The county ASC committee has announced that farm owners and operators may start this Monday, Feb. 4, signing up for 1956 soil bank corn payments.

The payment for laying out corn acreage is quite good and amounts to about $34 per acre for the average corn farm in the county. It costs about $26 to grow an acre of corn, so the project is really equivalent to about $60 worth of corn per acre.

The county committee expects the money available to run out before all those desiring to sign up do so. This can happen because the program is set up to pay on a "first come, first served" basis this year. Actually there is less money available than was paid out in 1956 when the corn was all planted before the program came out.

The sign-up is due to last for about 30 days but the committee feels that folks interested in participating should sign up very early in the period and possibly during the first week. All signing will be done at the County office at 605 South Massachusetts.

Israel Is Reported Opposed While Egyptians Approve It

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Feb. 2 (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. called on Israel and Egypt today to accept a two-part compromise plan for U. N. forces to maintain peace on the tense Israeli-Egyptian border.

Israel and Egypt were officially silent as the chief U. S. delegate spoke at an extraordinary session of the 80-nation General Assembly. Israel, however, was reported cold to the plan. Egypt was said to be favorably disposed.

Lodge appealed also to the Assembly for support but ran into adamant objections from the Soviet bloc. Speakers from the Soviet Union, Czechoslovakia and Albania hit part of the plan as a new attempt by the United States to impose imperialism on the Middle East in the form of the Eisenhower doctrine.

They joined Lodge in a renewed and stronger demand for Israel to leave Egypt. But they refused to go along with a proposal that units of the U. N. Emergency Force move promptly into the area evacuated by Israel. Instead, they demanded that the emergency troops leave Egypt once they have finished supervising the cease-fire.

The plan was in the shape of two resolutions sponsored by the United States, Brazil, Columbia, India, Indonesia, Norway and Yugoslavia. The first resolution called for Israel to complete the evacuation of Egypt "without further delay" and deplored that Israel has not complied with five previous Assembly requests to withdraw.

The second resolution, which Lodge said should be voted upon as soon as the first is approved, called for strict observance by Egypt and Israel of their 1949 armistice. It said that, after Israel has withdrawn from the Gaza and Sharm El Sheikh areas, the scrupulous maintenance of the armistice agreement required the placing of U. N. Emergency Force on the demarcation line.

Investment Policies Announced

State Treasurer Says $40 Million to Stay In Bank Accounts

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 2 (AP)—State Treasurer M. E. Morris announced today he has decided $40 million should be kept in active bank accounts at all times to meet the current operating expenses of the state government.

The rest will be invested in interest bearing time deposits or government securities. That's what the voters directed last November when they overwhelmingly approved a constitutional amendment on investment of idle state funds.

Here's the three-part plan Morris announced today to comply with the people's mandate.

1. Keep $40 million in demand deposits at all times to meet current operating costs. The three active checking accounts will be distributed $20 million at the Central Missouri Trust Co. in Jefferson City, $10 million in the Commerce Trust Co. in Kansas City and $10 million in the Mercantile Trust Co. in St. Louis.

2. Hold around $50 million in time deposits at one per cent interest in banks around the state. As of now, 302 banks have $56,325,000 in such deposits. Morris said other banks might be added later.

3. As bonds of the state's $76 million building bond issue are sold, invest the proceeds—plus any windfall from increased tax collections—in 90-day U.S. Treasury bills. Currently they are paying three per cent interest.

Morris estimated this investment program will give the state from $50,000 to $1 million in new revenue a year.

The first $20 million worth of bonds will be sold Feb. 13 by the State Board of Fund Commissioners, by which Morris is a member. He said the advertisement for bids had produced wide interest in investment circles and predicted the state would have no

CREATED A HOT MARKET OVERNIGHT

Recently, when the Clayton Laboratories Division of Grove Laboratories, Inc., introduced a new product, although all mediums of advertising were used, Grove Vice-President Gene K. Foss made this observation after a survey of the results: "Newspaper advertising is basic because of its deep penetration and its immediacy and flexibility."

SURVEY RESULTS...

Newspapers, spot television and spot radio were used in the launching of Grove's new product. In each package of the new product was placed a business reply card asking, among other things, "How did you hear about this product?"

Of 8,000 purchasers replying, 53% named newspaper advertisements as the source of their information. Television was credited by 13%, radio by 4%. The remainder listed druggists, friends, doctors and other sources.

The clincher was a depth interview survey made for Grove by a research organization which confirmed unmistakably the findings of the postcard survey.

In advertising, it's the results that count—and The Democrat-Capital produces consistent results for its advertisers. These newspapers publish over 13,125 copies daily for distribution to Central Missouri subscribers.

FROM KELLOGG'S OF BATTLE CREEK

A GENTLE NATURAL WAY TO BREAK THE LAXATIVE DRUG HABIT

Try Kellogg's All-Bran and Milk, nature's great food combination

For satisfying relief from constipation due to insufficient bulk

Not a drug but a food!

Do you, like so many people looking for quick relief, head for the medicine chest at the first sign of irregularity?

Why should you—when Kellogg's All-Bran and milk can bring gentle, natural relief of constipation due to lack of bulk.

Nature certainly never intended us to be always "dosing up" with drug-type purgatives. A violent purge one day and then in a few days a return to constipation that's often worse than ever.

To really correct the condition, you have to get at the cause. Since insufficient bulk is a common cause of constipation, it stands to reason that the way to lasting regularity is simply to get the bulk you need daily back in your diet.

All the bulk you need

There's nothing like Kellogg's All-Bran and milk for doing this. A serving at breakfast or bedtime supplies all the good food bulk you need daily to keep regular. And because Kellogg's All-Bran has a good old-fashioned bran muffin flavor, it's an altogether pleasant (and inexpensive) way to stay on schedule.

All-Bran and milk are both good wholesome foods—which means that, in addition to the bulk you need, you get valuable food essentials, including important vitamins, minerals and high-quality protein.

Proved by millions

Actually, Kellogg's has been making All-Bran for over 40 years now (it's the original, you know). Yet people continue to "discover" this great natural food combination of All-Bran and milk. It has worked for literally millions of folks just like you.

So if you find yourself getting deeper and deeper into the laxative drug habit, it's time you "discover" Kellogg's All-Bran and milk. Kellogg's invites you to try it for 10 days and see if you don't feel better than you have in years.

Double your money back

In fact, if you are not satisfied with Kellogg's All-Bran in every way, just return the empty carton and Kellogg's will give you back twice what you paid. That's a promise from Kellogg's of Battle Creek, Michigan.

Millions have found the natural way to regularity—and a whole new lease on life—thanks to Kellogg's All-Bran. Why not you?

B. Scott Proves Theory, 'It's a Small World,' True

By Miss Pauline Chamberlin
Bruce Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conn Scott, Hughesville, recently experienced the truth of the trite saying, "It's a small world." Bruce had completed his college training in Business Education at CMSC and had accepted a job in the main office of the meat department of a big wholesale grocery in North Kansas City.

Proud of his first job, he immediately set out on the important task of finding a place to live. He made a number of investigations which all proved unsuccessful attempts at locating the right one. Finally as he continued his inquiries through various persons and agencies, someone thought of a Mrs. Ferguson who might have rooms or would know of someone who did. Mrs. Ferguson was called. She was not home, but would be at a certain hour. By this time Bruce was getting a little discouraged and might have felt a twinge of homesickness for Hughesville, but he built up his hopes as he approached this strange home at the appointed time.

Mrs. Ferguson graciously showed him her rooms for rent and Bruce decided right away that here was his home away from home. Then Mrs. Ferguson took down his name and asked him where he was from, etc. When she found out he was from Hughesville she exclaimed, "Hughesville is where my husband, Clark Ferguson was reared. "Oh," said Bruce, "Then where I live is his old home, for I remember it was from folks by the name of Ferguson that my parents bought our home. This was surprising to Mrs.

Ferguson and it was not only surprising but assuring to Bruce who felt a kinship with the Ferguson's from then on.

Mrs. Ferguson is the former Ella Marie Lieming, Sedalia. Clark teaches in a North Kansas City high school. His mother, Mrs. Lillie Ferguson lives in Sedalia.

Australia's annual wool crop amounts to about 900 million dollars.

His Golden Anniversary at the Wheel!

In Texas, there is a gentleman who is currently
Cadillac car.

In New Jersey, there is another gentleman who has purchased every yearly model that Cadillac has produced over the past fifty-three years.

These are simply dramatic examples of one of the most remarkable truisms in all motordom:
that once a man takes the wheel of a Cadillac, he usually remains at the wheel of a Cadillac!

To be sure, a motor car would have to offer many unique virtues in order to win so generous a place for itself in the affections of so many.

And, in the case of Cadillac, we think these virtues are self-evident.

There is, first of all, quality. No effort of styling or design or craftsmanship is ever spared to make Cadillac the finest possible motor car.

There is beauty and luxury and performance.
The car's magnificent styling and interior coach-work have, over the years, brought Cadillac an inbred majesty and elegance that are entirely its own... and Cadillac engineering has been the industry's constant inspiration.

Finally, there is reputation. Never in automotive history has another motor car sustained such an abiding public conviction in its own goodness.

And, certainly, these basic Cadillac ingredients have this year reaped their richest harvest.

So whether you've been at the wheel of a Cadillac for half a century... or have yet to spend your first hour in the "car of cars"... you should see and drive this newest of Cadillacs.

Need we say more?

Engineer, for their two children. Mrs. Powers had been baby sitting for the Loughridges at her own home, and as they started for the house an argument started. Loughridge struck his wife several times, knocking her to the sidewalk. Her father, Jack Barlow, 73, Hiawatha, Kan., who has been visiting his daughter, tried to stop the fight and himself was knocked down two or three times by his son-in-law.

Barlow went to the house and had them call the police.

At police headquarters, later, Mrs. Loughridge said that she and her husband had gone downtown about 5 o'clock and went to the Green Pastures. She said her husband became angered when she wanted to go home and he didn't. "It all started after we got out of the car and on the sidewalk," she said.

After Mrs. Loughridge was questioned at police headquarters, she was taken to the Powers home by the police to get her children and then go home.

Charges of assault on two counts have been filed against Loughridge in the City Police Court. The first count is in connection with the attack on his wife and the second count in connection with the assault on Officer Nicewarmer.

A hold order has been placed against Loughridge at the hospital.

"Certainly, reasonable leniency for children committing first offenses and minor violations is a proper consideration. However, the present major problem is no longer one of bad children but of young criminals."

trouble selling its bonds at a good price.

Since the first $20 million is not expected to be spent for new buildings for about a year and a half, Morris said only a small part of that would be needed for immediate disbursement. The rest—perhaps $18 or $19 million—can go into government securities.

"The absolute safety of the state's funds," Morris said in a statement, "which actually belong to the people, is my ultimate objective and greatest concern."

He said he thought his plan would fit in with a bill being considered in the Senate to write investment procedures into law.

"I believe such an investment plan with reference to federal securities will lessen the possibility of wide fluctuations in time deposits," he said.

"At the same time it will permit money representing receipts from general taxation to remain on as large a scale as is conservatively possible in the sections of the state where it was collected, pending expenditure for current needs."

Morris said he thought his plan is "the best and safest that can be devised under the law for the benefit of the state as a whole."

Sedalia Has Good January Road Record

In spite of the big increase in reported accidents in Sedalia for the month of January, when an all-time high was reached, Chief of Police Edgar Neighbors said, "We were very fortunate in going through the month with no fatal or serious injuries."

There were 72 accidents investigated and reported to the police for the month as compared to 48 in January of 1956. In discussing the increase, Chief Neighbors pointed out we have had more slick, snow and icy streets this past month than Sedalia has experienced in several years, and at the same time a greater increase of motor cars being operated than in previous years.

In the month of February, 1956, there were 49 accidents and already for this month four accidents have been reported up to noon Saturday.

On Friday, damage to two cars occurred when a 1956 Chevrolet sedan driven east on Second by Harry A. Trotter, 722 East Ninth, and a 1955 Dodge sedan driven east on Second by Emmett W. Griffith, Whiteman AFB, collided. The left front door to the Chevrolet and the right front door to the Dodge were damaged.

On Saturday, up to noon, three accidents occurred.

At 7:28 a.m. a 1955 Ford pickup truck and a 1946 Pontiac sedan, both driven south on Second by Perry B. Wolke, 615 North Quincy, and the Pontiac was pulling out; heading south on Quincy, driven by Ben H. Perkins, 316 North Quincy. The left front door of the truck and the right front fender on the car were damaged.

Two cars collided in the 300 block on South Massachusetts at 10:08 a.m. Saturday. Involved was a 1952 Plymouth sedan driven south by Don A. Lyne, LaMonte, and a 1950 Oldsmobile sedan which was parked and owned by Royce Hall, 1318 South Warren. Lyne was pulling in to park when the bumpers of the cars hooked. The right rear end of the bumper on the Plymouth and the front bumper on the Oldsmobile were damaged.

At noon two cars collided at 914 South Lamine. John Walter Gerdtz, 2101 South Marvin, was driving his 1952 Chevrolet sedan south on Lamine, and George A. Closser, 1308 South Lamine, was pulling out from the curb when the vehicles collided. The right front and side of the Chevrolet was damaged and the left front of the Closser car was damaged.

Full-Time Speech Therapist Is Important Step for Center

ED. NOTE — This is another in a series of stories relating to the Crippled Children's Center, Sedalia's newest health, welfare, and educational organization. The Crippled Children's Center is a non-profit institution supported by public contribution and voluntary service.

One of the most important milestones in its progress was reached at the Crippled Children's Center on Jan. 1, 1957, when a full-time speech therapist was employed by the board of directors. A dream was materialized at that time when Leon K. Whitney, nationally known speech authority, took on his new duties.

A series of events led up to Whitney coming to Sedalia to associate himself with the local center. Both the handicapped children of this area and the city of Sedalia benefited by his acceptance of the position.

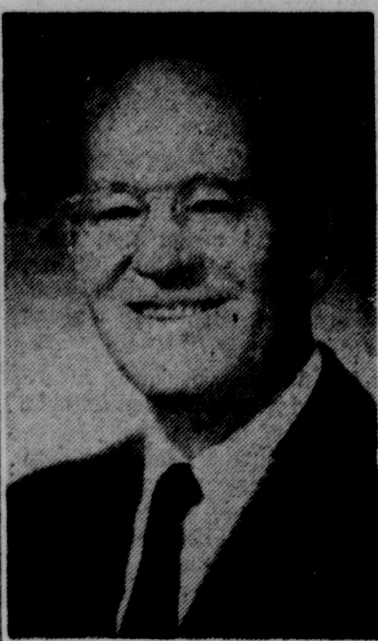

When the local center was in an embryonic stage over a year and a half ago, officials of the Crippled Children's Center learned through authorities on handicapped children that before this institution could take on full stature, it would be necessary to have a professionally trained speech therapist connected with the center.

The first problem which arose was the manner in which a therapist could be retained on a full time basis with an adequate salary. A member of the board of directors at the center, who prefers not to accept any public credit, personally campaigned a number of responsible civic minded individuals and business establishments and received commitments that they would pledge monthly contributions to provide a salary for a therapist.

Harold W. Barrick, president of United Cerebral Palsy for this area at the time, spent much time in contacting various schools graduating speech therapists. At that time UCP had taken the initial steps in getting the Crippled Children's Center started in the basement of the nurses' home at the Bothwell Hospital. It seemed that Barrick's efforts were all going to be in vain, however.

Being joined by the local organizations of the Crippled Children's Society and Polio in organizing the local center into its own separate corporation, officials of UCP and the other two organizations pooled their sources of contacts in efforts to secure a speech therapist.

Through Mrs. Virginia Flower, who was formerly the president of the local chapter of the Crippled Children's Society and who is now president of the board of directors of the newly incorporated Crippled Children's Center, an official of the state organization of the Society was contacted for his knowledge of any available speech therapist.

It was learned from this official that Leon K. Whitney, formerly the head of the speech department for the South High School, Denver, Col. might be available. Whitney had taken his retirement from the Denver Public Schools in 1955 but had decided to continue into this type of work and was employed as full-time speech therapist, diagnostician and parent consultant for the Lehigh County Crippled Children's Society at Allentown, Pa.

Whitney came to Sedalia to look over the position at the local center last November and seeing the great possibilities of having a part in making it an outstanding institution of its type he was permitted to resign at Allentown and accept the job here, effective Jan. 1.

The new speech therapist has a remarkable background in speech therapy. He served in the Denver Public Schools for 30 years but during part of that time he was able to serve as speech consultant at Denver University. He also held summer positions at the University of Wyoming and College of the Pacific.

Whitney is an author in his own right. His textbook, "Directed Speech", is being used by high

Are There Any Objections?

Time is drawing near to an election date—Tuesday, February 19—when Sedalians must determine whether or not to approve a proposal to purchase the Sedalia Water Company on a revenue bond basis.

Under the franchise option, the city can acquire the water system for a total revenue bond issue of $2,700,000, and the interest cannot exceed 3½ per cent. Of this amount, $2,415,000 is to reimburse the Water Company for its property as at the time of the engineer's appraisal on July 31, 1956. The balance of $285,000 is to pay for materials and supplies on hand at the time of purchase, and to complete the company's expansion and modernization program, as scheduled for completion after July 31, 1956.

A printed brochure reemphasizing facts and figures previously published about the water company purchase has been prepared by the Citizens Water Committee composed of Herman Bloss, chairman, Jack Allgaier, C. R. Bothwell, Frank W. Hayes and William Howell. Copies have been mailed to Sedalia residents and property owners.

The committee makes pointed reference to the fact that the purchase price is fair, and that citizens will save from 40 to 50 per cent increase in water rates sought by the present ownership; that issuance of water revenue bonds cannot raise taxes; that the present level of water charges is enough to meet both interest and principal payment on such revenue bonds.

Regarding the comment about savings on water rates, this does not mean the rates will forever remain stable if council should ever decide to raise them. And under public ownership, not being amenable to the Public Service Commission, the council could do just that.

Some fear has been expressed that under municipal ownership the water company may become a political football, that politicians would get their greasy hands under the tap. If such a trend develops it would be only because of a lazy and indifferent electorate.

The universal wonder is why the people are so afraid of politicians when it is within their eternal power to choose and abandon their administrators.

Municipal affairs of any nature will be as good or as bad as the voters elect to have them. Which reminds us that a city election of four councilmen is coming up in April and it is high time some consideration was given probable candidates.

We have heard it mentioned the present owners of the water company are willing to sell out only because they will make a profit on the deal. Now that Christmas is past one would hardly expect the company to play Santa Claus. Those who are suspicious of the company selling for a profit would have their suspicions heightened if the company announced it was selling at half price.

We have said before that there may be honest differences of opinion as to the wisdom of municipal ownership of the water company. That is, a citizen's right and privilege. Earnest, sincere, legitimate campaigns to win as many votes as possible for or against the proposal are commendable.

But such campaign should be through persuasive arguments based on facts—not on emotional appeals, bias or false statements.

The Citizens Water Committee has given forthright presentation of information regarding the proposal.

On the basis of publicity up to the present time the issue is one-sided in favor of purchase of the water system. If there is any definite opposition it is time for objectors to present their case publicly so that citizens may have ample time to digest and compare dissenting statements with those already published.

If there are any objections, let's hear them now.

McCarthy Boycotts Eisenhower Luncheon

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Few people even inside the Senate saw what happened, but Sen. Joe McCarthy boycotted President Eisenhower when he came up for lunch with the Senate GOP policy committee this week.

All Republican senators were invited into the Appropriations Committee room where the luncheon was held, to say hello to their leader. A secret service man had a list of all senators permitted to enter. On the list was the name of Joe McCarthy. But Joe did not come.

Carefully, he stayed on the Senate floor, then rather ostentatiously escorted two young girls from Wisconsin around Senate corridors, stopped in front of the room where the luncheon was being held, posed for photographers, and went on.

Too-Neutral Hammarskjöld

Diplomats who worry over the sometimes narrow pro-Nasser operations of UN Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld recall the remark made by that venerable crusader for peace, Trygve Lie, when he retired as secretary general of the United Nations.

The old Norwegian lion, who had taken firm sides against the Communists in the Korean war, shook his head as if preferring not to comment. Then he said:

"He is too Swedish and too neutral for me."

Mrs. Morse and Mrs. McKay

After ex-Secretary of Interior Doug McKay was defeated by Sen. Wayne Morse (D., Ore.) in a bitter Senate race, the McKays sadly decided to give up their Washington apartment in the Greenbriar. About that time, a woman phoned the Greenbriar apartments, asking if they had a vacancy.

"We will have a lovely apartment available next month," promised the Greenbriar manager. "Secretary and Mrs. McKay are now living there. But if you would like to look at the apartment, I'm sure they wouldn't mind."

"No, thank you," replied the woman. "You see, I am Mrs. Morse."

Witch-Hunter Returns

An interesting and amazing development has happened inside the potent Senate Judiciary Committee which indicates the power of McCarthyism even though its original author has been censured by the Senate.

Julian Sourwine, McCarthy's friend and author of the witch-hunting probe of the New York Times, is being taken back as top counsel of the Judiciary Committee.

Sourwine left the committee last year to run for the Senate in Nevada, where he was severely trounced in the Democratic primaries by Sen. Alan Bible. Ordinarily, senatorial courtesy either discourages or definitely forbids a man who ran against a senator from receiving reward from the Senate, or, for that matter, from the executive branch of the government.

However, Sourwine has the backing of McCarthy's friend, Senator Eastland of Mississippi, chairman of the committee, and also Senator Jenner of Indiana, another McCarthy friend.

Sourwine started the New York Times probe on his own, without any vote by the Internal Security Committee. Not even McCarthy would have taken this initiative without consulting other committee members. The probe was held shortly before Sourwine ran for the Senate in Nevada, and some senators felt that the timing was deliberate in order to help Sourwine's Senate ambitions.

Roy Cohn, McCarthy's close friend, put up some of the money for the Nevada race. Now that the race fizzled, Sourwine is back at the Judiciary Committee about to get the top staff job.

Billboard Lobby

The billboard lobby is unlimbering its guns to fire at Sen. Dick Neuberger (D., Ore.) and his bill which would protect the scenic beauty of new federal highways. Neuberger's bill would ban billboards for 500 feet on each side of new highways.

"The value of a billboard," says Neuberger, "comes not from the billboard but from the value of the highway. The American taxpayer is going to spend $39,000,000,000 on these highways, and I claim they have a right to look at a little bit of the scenery that's left in this country."

Neuberger introduced this amendment to the highway bill last year, but it was knocked out by Senator George of Georgia, for years the congressional spokesman of Coca-Cola. Today the billboard lobbyists are warming up again. Some time ago they wrote senators, claiming the billboards kept drivers from going to sleep. To this, Senator Neuberger replies:

"The billboard lobby claims that if you look at what God put alongside the highways you will fall asleep. If they think they can improve on God with signs of Old Grand-Dad and Regal Beer they have another think coming."

Highest point in Ohio is Campbell Hill. Located near Bellefontaine, it is 1,550 feet in height.

The bitters puffs up its loose feathers when danger threatens in order to look more formidable.

Your Child's Health

Teen-Age Body Building Not Considered Harmful

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

I am certainly reminded of my own youth by today's first question.

Q—My 16-year-old son has completed about three months of a strenuous muscle and body-building correspondence course by means of weight lifting and diet. These seem hard exercises but apparently do not bother him. Would you advise that this be continued indefinitely and could it hurt his health?—J. M. A.

A—The desire for splendid body and muscles is natural and common in boys of this age. If his heart is all right it is unlikely to do him any harm, even if continued as long as he wants.

When I was about that age I took wrestling lessons by mail with the same general end in view. I cannot recall that the results were harmful, nor the effects permanent; however, I did require a larger neck size for my shirts which slightly disturbed my mother and the family budget.

Q—My seven-year-old son has one brown eye and one blue eye. Could you say why this should be so?—Mrs. M. H.

A—It is said that this peculiar phenomenon of unmatched eye colors occurs about once in a thousand times. Several explanations have been suggested. One is that a person may inherit one brown-eyed gene and one blue-eyed gene, which would normally make both eyes brown, but that very early something happened to the brown-eyed gene on one side of the face, leaving the field clear for the single blue eye.

Another suggestion is that the start is with two blue-eyed genes, but that some change occurred as a result of possible mild disease or injury which increased the brown pigment in one of the eyes. Any explanation offered is more or less guesswork.

Q—I am a good-looking girl of 14 and am pretty popular with boys as well as girls. My problem is this: My voice is clear and pretty at times, but when I wake up in the morning I am not able to talk in a natural tone. My voice sounds hoarse and brittle and my throat gets clogged. Can you help?—In Trouble.

A—It may be that there is a slight chronic infection in the upper breathing passageways and that mucus runs down into the throat at night. If it is really sufficiently bothersome, I suggest that your parents send you to a good nose and throat specialist.

Q—I have a problem with my grandson. He spits on his hands and says he does this because his hands feel dry. I have tried everything I could think of to break the habit.—Mrs. S. R.

A—It is possible that the little boy has some irritation on the skin of his hands which needs treatment. However, it is more likely that this is just a habit which he has started to attract attention. If there is nothing wrong with the skin of his hands, it may be best to ignore his habit and try to get him occupied with things which interest him.

Q—Is there a way I may clean wax off my small children's eardrums regularly without damaging the drums?—Mrs. L. B.

A—The chances are that it is both unnecessary and undesirable to try to clean the wax out of your children's ears except near the surface with a wet cloth. Usually the wax is expelled as need be through the external portion of the ear. If it should get hard and impacted, forming a kind of plug, the safest thing is to have it washed out by a syringe in a physician's office.

Is the Nation Indifferent?

Probe Reveals Soviets Are Closing Qualitative Gap

By JOSEPH A. DEAR
Of Our Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON—The simple fact is that Senator Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) and his subcommittee on the Air Force, during investigation of the state of American air power provoked only a ripple of response. Their final report, just released, won't do much more.

And that's truly staggering. For here is a report in which a considerable body of expert testimony is presented, and all of that testimony is to the effect that Russian air power now exceeds ours quantitatively and soon may exceed ours qualitatively.

Is the nation consciously aware of this, and if it is, is it indifferent? The bulk of the testimony taken by the Symington subcommittee came from senior officers of the military services. Scientists also contributed. So did the civilian secretaries. Symington himself, incidentally, was Secretary of the Air Force during the Truman administration.

One of the conclusions reached by the subcommittee majority is that: "The Soviets are rapidly closing the qualitative gap. Yet, our qualitative lead is now being given as justification for our having passed over to the Soviets quantitative superiority in military airpower."

Some excerpts from the report follow. First, Dr. Killian, president of Massachusetts Institute of Technology:

"I am convinced that our national security can be jeopardized, and even lost, by the mismanagement of our resources—both proved and potential—of creative intelligence. . . . They (the Russians) understand . . . that the kind of armaments race in which we are now is largely a race in military technology. . . . There is no doubt that the Soviets have generated a respect and enthusiasm for science and engineering that has operated to give them a larger supply of trained professionals in these fields, from a smaller total school and university population, than this country's. . . ."

General LeMay, boss of the Strategic Air Command: "I consider the lack of skilled manpower to be my most critical deficiency. . . . General Partridge, intelligence chief: ". . . the threat of Soviet attack by the ICBM (inter-continental ballistic missile) is so frightening to me that we just cannot afford to put less effort into the defense than we can into the offense. . . ."

General Berquist of the Air Force: "We do not have enough money in the Air Force research and development program."

Trevor Gardner, who was an assistant Secretary of the Air Force during the Eisenhower Administration: "I know that several public statements have been made that we are qualitatively ahead of the Russians. While that may be true today—I am talking now across the board in the technological field—we have just set up a system here that will lose the qualitative race to the Russians. Quantitatively they are clearly ahead of us in aircraft, and this has been admitted by most of the Defense Department military and civilian officials."

It is true that the civilian chiefs from the Pentagon were less pessimistic. Senator Saltonstall (R-Mass.) prepared a minority report in which this point is underscored. It is also true that President Eisenhower has expressed satisfaction with the situation as it is. The President has said, in effect, that the United States has enough power to destroy Russia absolutely, and that's enough.

But this is not completely reassuring. It is disquieting to realize that Russia matches us in air power. Ten years ago our lead in weapons systems seemed safe. Ten years before World War II the lead of the British and French seemed equally commanding, but Germany closed the gap. This is not to say that the same consequences will follow, but United States won't be able to negotiate from a position of strength any more. It will have to negotiate with a military equal.

And, if the expert testimony in the report of the Symington subcommittee is accurate, the day may soon be upon us when we will have to negotiate from a position of military inferiority. That would be an uncomfortable and possibly dangerous situation for us.

Healthy Nation

MOSCOW (U)—The Soviet Union now has 153,000 public health institutions and more doctors than any other country, Health Minister M. D. Kovrigina told a news conference in Moscow.

Ruth Millett Says

Cheerfulness Is More Contagious Than a Cold

Day in and day out, year in and year out, if you are a homemaker there is one thing you owe your family. It is a cheerful, lighthearted attitude toward living.

No matter how hard you work, or how much good you try to do, or how willing you are to sacrifice for your family, you can't make a happy home unless you are happy yourself and cheerful enough in your manner to make your contentment catching.

A dissatisfied woman, a quarrelsome woman, a woman who nurses grudges, one who enjoys talking about sorrow, a female martyr—none of these can make a happy home.

For no matter how much she does for her family or how often she reminds them of what she does, she creates a gloomy atmosphere that makes her home a cheerless place.

So what if your husband is worrying about expenses, your small children are quarrelsome, your work seems too hard, the responsibilities are weighing heavily on your husband's shoulders and yours, too? Substitute a smile for a worried frown, put warmth in your voice instead of a sharp note or a whine, keep your temper when things go wrong and laugh at everything you can.

You'll find that in a matter of a few days, if you keep it up, problems won't seem so big. The family will respond better to your wishes and necessary demands. There'll be fewer arguments and more good-natured banter in your home. Homelife will get a real lift.

That is true because a woman can't make a home happy or help each member of the family to be a happier person until she learns to be happy, herself, and to spread cheerfulness. Cheerfulness is easy to spread. In fact, it's more catching than the common cold.

The Club Reporter

The president of a club, of course, Will get a little glory,
But club reporter—job by force—Is quite a different story;
She tries to jot the notes all down
Of what is going on,
And then at home she looks around
To find part of them gone;
Or maybe they just can't be read,
Now that her notes are "cold,"
She got mixed with the speaker said
With what Mrs. Johnson told;
A Mrs. Jones, a Mrs. Brown
Were both guests for the day,
She forgot to get initials down,
Doesn't matter anyway—
Except there're Joneses by the score,
She knows not what she's done,
Of Mrs. Browns there are still more,
And no one knows which one.
Now, what she really meant to do
Was sit right down and write 'em,
But she let slip a day or two
And then forgot the item;
The president calls her on the phone,
And then the scapbook keeper,
They just can't let the gal alone,
She gets in deeper—deeper;
She gets her notes—now very "cold,"
And from them does she try to write
The meeting, almost a month old,
And asks that it be in tonight;
And sometimes she is not to blame,
The article gets lost,
But she will get it just the same
From voices edged with frost;
They make her mad, they bawl her out,
She never can explain,
And we agree, there is no doubt,
Her job is sure a pain;
For club reporters are abused,
And now here is the rub,
That job she probably refused
But took to help the club;
You bet, we truly sympathize
With what she's going through,
We know that she really tries
But she is busy, too;
Yes sir, folks have funny ways,
The president likely gets a gift
At the year's end—but just some praise
Would give reporters quite a lift;
But no one thinks to say she's done
A real nice job—might be white lies,
But she would do a better one
If members praise—not criticize.

Taxpayers Cheat Themselves On Their Personal Exemptions

(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax filing. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Accountants and the Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.)

Many people overpay their taxes because they cheat themselves on their personal exemptions.

Here is how to count your exemptions (each one takes $600 off your taxable income):

One exemption for yourself, two if you are 65 or over, two if you are blind, three if you are both 65 and blind. The same applies to your husband or wife.

If your husband or wife died during 1956 you can still file a joint return claiming the exemptions, including those for age or blindness, to which the deceased would have been entitled at the time of death.

Who Qualifies?
One exemption of $600 can be taken for each person who fits the definition of a dependent. This $600 is not doubled for age or blindness, however, as in the case of your personal exemption.

To count for an exemption, the dependent must:

(1) Have less than $600 gross income for 1956 (except that this does not apply to your child if he is under 19 or is a full-time student).

(2) Have received more than half of his support from you, unless you file a Multiple Support Agreement (see below).

(3) Not file a joint return.

(4) Be either a citizen of the U.S. or a resident of the U.S., Canada, Mexico, Canal Zone, Panama and in some cases, a serviceman's child living in the Philippines.

(5) Live with you (absence while attending school does not interfere) or be a close relative as defined in the instruction book or be a cousin receiving institutional care for a mental or physical disability who had lived with you before going to the institution.

Multiple Support Agreements

If you shared with others in the support of a dependent, but none of you provided more than half the support, you may still be able to arrange among you for one of the group to have the $600 exemption. You might agree, for example, to take turns in having the exemption from year to year.

The one who claims the exemption must have contributed more than 10 per cent of the support, and he must be a member of a group who altogether provided more than half support, and that person must have been entitled to claim that dependent except for the requirement of providing more than half support.

In order for one of the group to have the exemption all other members of the group who contributed more than 10 per cent must sign declarations that they will not claim the dependent. The Internal Revenue Service provides Form 2120 (Multiple Support Agreement) for this purpose.

Children and Disabled Dependents

There is a deduction of as much as $600 for care of children under 12 while the breadwinner works. This child-care deduction is available to mothers, widowers, divorced and legally separated persons, who are allowed to deduct expenses paid to someone other than a dependent for the care of a son, daughter, stepson or stepdaughter under the age limit. This regulation also applies to any dependent of any age who is mentally or physically incapacitated.

A working wife is entitled to this deduction if her husband is physically or mentally incapable of providing support. Where the husband is not disabled, the working wife may also take the child-care deduction only if a joint return is filed, and the $600 limit must be reduced by the amount the couple's gross income exceeds $4500. It should be kept in mind that you can't take this deduction if you take the standard 10 per cent deduction.

The instruction book which comes with your tax form gives further information. Help is also available by telephone or at offices of the Internal Revenue Service. The Revenue Service urges

The Citizens' Water Committee was asked to study Sedalia's water rate problem and suggest a solution. After a study of more than 6 months, we recommend municipal ownership of our water system, as the only step which can prevent much higher water charges. We believe it is our responsibility to explain the facts which led us to make this recommendation.

BUYING THE WATER SYSTEM WILL NOT, CANNOT, RAISE OUR TAXES

At the special election, February 19, Sedalians will vote on a proposal to issue to pay for Water Company property and bring our water system under public ownership. Revenue Bonds are entirely different from general obligation bonds. Under Missouri law, Revenue Bonds must be repaid ONLY out of revenue from the utility purchased. NOT ONE PENNY OF EITHER PRINCIPAL OR INTEREST CAN EVER BE PAID FROM TAXES.

The City Tax Fund Will Not Lose

At present, the privately-owned Water Company pays taxes to the City only on its property assessed within the City. The budget for the water system under municipal ownership provides for paying the City Tax Fund an amount to replace the Water Company taxes (see drawing below) — and the City will continue to pay fire hydrant rental into the water system Revenue, just as it does now, so that neither fund will be affected by the purchase.

Sedalia School District No. 200 Will Not Lose.

Last year, Sedalia School District No. 200 Collected exactly $385.78 from taxes paid by the Water Company on its property assessed within the city limits. At the same time, the Schools paid TO THE WATER COMPANY $3,589.58 for water used. With a rate increase of only 40% under continued private ownership, School District No. 200 would have to pay $5,025.41 for the same quantity of water, AN INCREASE OF $1,435.83—far more than the $385.78 taxes collected.

WHAT DOES THE LAW SAY?

Section 27 of Article VI of the Constitution of Missouri, 1945, provides that any city by vote of four sevenths of its qualified electors voting on the proposition may issue and sell Revenue Bonds for the purpose of purchasing, extending or improving water works or certain other utilities to be owned exclusively by the city. The constitutional provision expressly provides that:

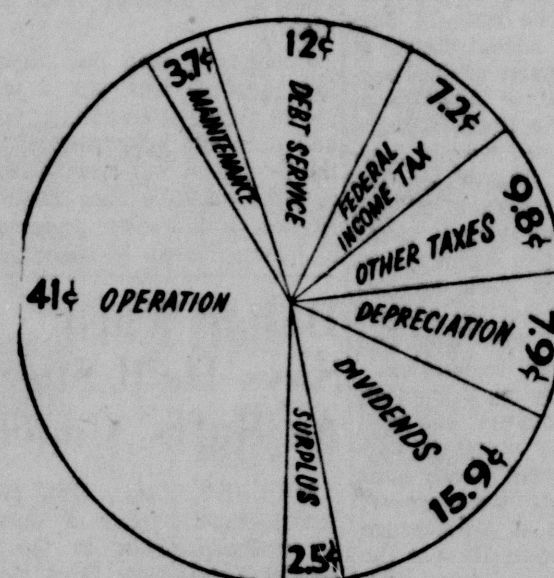

"the cost of operation and maintenance and the principal and interest of the bonds to be payable solely from the revenues derived by the municipality from the operation of such utility."

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP WILL SAVE EVERY WATER USER MONEY

THE WATER SYSTEM WILL PAY FOR ITSELF

The Committee's judgment in this respect was confirmed by the Consulting Engineers. The drawings below illustrate the Engineers' findings.

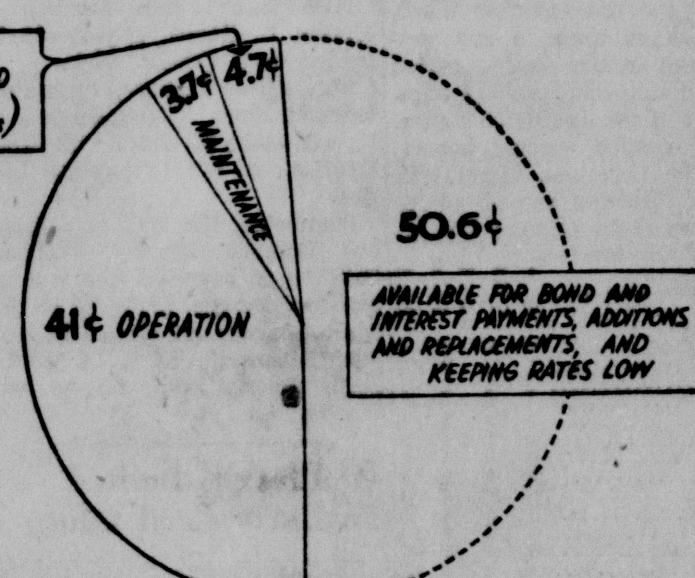

HOW EACH DOLLAR OF INCOME in 1955 was divided by SEDALIA WATER COMPANY

Note the EXTRA EXPENSES which the water system has to pay under private ownership. Under municipal ownership, the 50.6¢ of every revenue dollar will be available to meet all Bond and interest payments, additions and replacements, and hold the rates down.

BUT THIS SAME LEVEL OF RATES IS NOT ENOUGH TO PAY WATER COMPANY STOCK-

HOW THE SAME DOLLAR OF INCOME would be divided under MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP

HOLDERS A FAIR RETURN ON THEIR INVESTMENT, AFTER PAYMENT OF HIGH FEDERAL INCOME TAXES AND OTHER COSTS WHICH A PUBLICLY-OWNED WATER SYSTEM DOES NOT PAY. THEREFORE, THE PRIVATELY-OWNED WATER COMPANY MUST RAISE ITS RATES.

Under continued private ownership, you will pay 40% to 50% more for your water.

Under municipal ownership, you will save yourself this rate increase, while paying all expenses, and without raising taxes.

Today, More Than 90% of All Water Systems are Publicly Owned

NKC Snares Title In Clinton Tourney

Smith-Cotton Wins 3rd Spot Over Adrian

Hornets Topple
Lexington 90-65;
Tigers Win 61-47

North Kansas City's perennially strong Hornets lumbered past Lexington Saturday night for a smashing 90-65 victory to capture the Clinton tournament championship.

The Hornets set their devastating pattern in the first half, dominating the quarterly scoring, 24-10 and 22-10 for a long 46-20 advantage at midway. They then relaxed in the second half while Lexington managed to clip two points off the margin in the third period, 26-24, and settled into defeat at NKC completed its romp 20-19 in the closing stanza.

R. Henderson poured in a total of 29 points for the winners, followed by teammate Sarver who collected 22. Lexington was led by Bland with 25.

Middleton struck from all corners to score 28 points and lead Smith-Cotton to an easy 61-47 conquest over Adrian and a third place victory.

Sedalia piled up a commanding 34-19 lead in the first half of play and fended off Adrian rally attempts in the second half to score a 14-point run-away.

Middleton's 28-point performance for the Tigers was backed up by Charles Newman who had 12. Patterson led Adrian with 21. All the Tigers who made the trip saw action.

The Tigers were halted in their bid for the championship Friday night when Lexington put them down for a 52-45 count in the semifinals.

Smith-Cotton trailed by a single point in each of the first two quarters, 14-13 and 12-11, which put the locals only two behind at the half, time, 26-24. But they lost their footing in the second half when Lexington lengthened its lead with a 12-6 quarter for a 38-30 command at the three-quarter mark.

The Sedalians made a last desperate stab in the closing period and could rally only a 15-14 edge, still short of the Lexington figure.

Outgoing scoring honors, leading the Lexington squad with 16 points. Newman ran up 12 for the Tigers and Spraggins pulled 11.

Phoenix Open Field Trails Casper's 204

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 2 (AP)—The old guard of golf made a bold bid to reach the top today, but fell just short of catching a new comer, California's Billy Casper, Jr., in the third round of the $15,000 Phoenix Open.

Casper, a roly-poly 25-year-old from Bonita, near San Diego, fired a 5-under-par 65 and reached the 54-hole point of the tournament with a score of 204.

National Open champion Cary Middlecoff, playing in front of Casper on the par 34-36 Arizona Country Club course, ushered himself into contention with a 65 for 205.

Both Billy and the veteran pro from Dallas made the tour with 9-hole scores of 37-33.

Lloyd Mangrum, another old warhorse from Apple Valley, Calif., got into the picture with a 33-33-66 for a total score of 206. Tied with Mangrum, was professional Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa. The former U. S. Amateur champion had a 70.

Deadlocked at 207 were Mike Souchak of Grossinger, N. Y., who had a 68; Al Balding, Canadian PGA champion from Etobicoke, Canada, with a 71, and Milton Marusic, the unheralded hero of yesterday's play, who fell back from the lead with a 72.

Another player going to Abilene is Wayne Leneave, 22-year-old catcher from Western Michigan State College. Another receiver is Wallace F. McGough, 19, Celina, Ohio, who was an all-state high school catcher last season in Ohio. He will report to Mattoon.

Also signed with Mattoon is Marvin L. Hegge, 19-year-old infielder from Crofton, Neb.

Max Allen Wagoner, 22-year-old infielder from Winston-Salem, N. C., will make his debut with Crowley, La., of the Evangeline League.

Completing the list are outfielders Thomas Gatenby, Pomona, Calif., a 22-year old who will report to Pocatello, Idaho, of the Pioneer League, and James B. Simmons, Jonesville, N. C., a Marine Corps veteran who will go with Crowley, La.

40 Players Invited To Early Card Camp

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 2 (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals today invited 40 players, 21 from the Redbird roster and 19 from winter lists of their minor league affiliates, to attend their early spring training camp starting Feb. 14 at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Laurel Winner Invades Florida
MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Master Boing of France, winner of the International race at Laurel in Maryland last fall, will invade Hialeah this winter in the hopes of running in the $100,000 Widener scheduled for Feb. 23.

Gene Fullmer Named Boxer Of the Month

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 2 (AP)—Gene Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, who won the middleweight title Jan. 2 by outpointing Ray (Sugar) Robinson, today was designated the January boxer-of-the month by the National Boxing Assn.

Robinson, who will get a return match with Fullmer in the Chicago Stadium April 24, was dropped to the No. 3 spot in the NABA's list of leading contenders for Fullmer's crown. Charlie Huemez of France and Joey Giardello of Philadelphia were ranked ahead of the dethroned Sugar Ray.

A scramble for the featherweight title, declared vacant when a medical examination of champion Sandy Saddler disclosed defective eyesight was predicted by Fred Saddy, Milwaukee, chairman of the NBA's national rating committee.

Saddy said the NBA has received letters from managers all over the world pleading for a chance for their boxers to fight for the title. Saddy's committee rated Cherif Hamia of French Algeria as the leading contender of Saddler's vacated title, followed by Carmelo Costa of New York and Miguel Berrios of Cuba. The NBA has already announced it will recognize the winner of a bout between Hamia and Costa as champion provided each agrees to defend the title against an NBS-named leading contender within 90 days.

In the lightweight division, the NBA moved up Yolande Pompey, 27-year-old Negro from Trinidad, British West Indies, to the No. 2 spot behind Chuck Spieser of Michigan. Pompey recently stopped the European champion, Gerhard Hecht, in two rounds. Archie Moore still is recognized as the titleholder.

N.Y. Baseball Writers Honor Mantle, Wrigley

NEW YORK, Feb. 2 (AP)—Mickey Mantle, the New York Yankees' slugger center fielder, and Phil Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, will be honored Sunday night at the annual dinner of the New York chapter of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Mantle will accept the Sid Mercer award as "Player of the Year" from Ben Epstein of the New York Mirror, vice chairman of the chapter. Barney Kremenko of the New York Journal-American will present the William J. Slocum award for "long and meritorious service" to Wrigley.

Mantle, currently in a contract hassle with the Yankees, has been touring the country accepting various awards in recent weeks after winning the league's "triple crown" with 52 home runs, a .353 average and 130 runs batted in. He was the unanimous choice as most valuable player in the league.

Majors Owners Reject Minimum Salary Boost

The Brooklyn senior pulled in 288 rebounds in 1954-55 for a 9.9 per game average and last season grabbed 325 for an 11.6 per game mark. Four other Generals stand taller than Storkick, but his timing and ability to get position on bigger men have given him an edge.

Sports Scraps

By D. KELLY SCRUTON

YES SIR, your attendance at the Sedalia Lions Club annual Invitational Basketball Tournament at Horace Mann school gymnasium starting on Tuesday evening will be greatly appreciated by the Lions members. Remember one thing, any monies which might be derived from the tournament in what one calls profit, goes for one thing, special activities of the Lions in their civic work.

The Lions use the greater portion of this money for children's activities, some of which is never given publicity such as obtaining shoes and clothing for worthy and needy children. Their names are never mentioned nor do any of the Lions discuss this project—it's theirs alone and do it to help youngsters to continue in school without embarrassment.

Other monies are used in their work with the Crippled Children Center, still more in the blind activity movement. One could go on and on telling what it does, but it is not necessary, as it is general knowledge anyway.

But when you support this fine athletic program which provides some good, clean, wholesome entertainment as well as statewide publicity for Sedalia, you get your money's worth.

Some of the best Independent teams in the area are entered in this tournament and some excellent basketball can be expected by the fans. Your admission fee isn't a donation, and do not get the idea the Lions are "putting on a lug" because it isn't so. They are selling to the public some good athletic entertainment and they are entitled to good support.

HOW easy an accident can occur, regardless of how careful you are with a gun. But they do happen. The one of which I'm about to tell you was serious, yes, but on the other hand rather amusing.

Last week one of the newsmen on the Capital called in to the City Editor and reported, "I can't come to work this week-end. I have had an accident."

The injured individual reported, "Well, I was hit in the rear, nothing serious."

The City Editor thought it was a minor "fender bender" as we call minor car accidents about the office.

But this weekend the truth came out. Our young friend had gone rabbit hunting and had put his pet .22 pistol in his hip pocket. As he crawled through some brush the hammer caught on a stick and snapped. The bullet, a .22 long, went cruising through the fleshy part of the right side, not touching any bones, but making a painful situation for sitting.

This same lad about three years ago went rabbit hunting and came back empty handed, explaining, "There aren't many rabbits this year and the only one I saw looked so skinny and hungry, I didn't have the heart to shoot it."

ONE sport which hit the skids here and which gained wide publicity for Sedalia was the Sedalia Invitational Open golf tournament. It paid its way the first year or so but fell on the final year—no fault of the tournament, however, as I look at it.

Some of these followers of golf have discussed the possibilities of reviving the Open for Sedalia, but with a little more strength behind it. Strength, I mean, with more manpower help to see that it is properly operated and that nobody gets the benefits of seeing the top golfers of the nation and area through the free route.

The reports have it too many sightseers walked in on the Open the last time and the big percentage of the gallery saw the play without charge. Hence there was money missing from that source which was not fair to the sponsors of such a fine sport attraction for Sedalia.

As a matter of fact, if any money is made at all it would be such a small amount it wouldn't mean anything to the Open was a success, especially if those interested didn't have to dig down deeper to pay off the expenses. There is no reason why it should carry itself, along with the usual help as was given in the previous Opens.

For sure it is a sport which gains nationwide publicity due to the "name" golfers who appear in both the pro field and the amateur bracket.

Maybe someone can come up with an idea to get it started again.

Addresses Knife, Fork Club

Sports Are Weapon Against Delinquency, Speaker Says

"Give kids plenty of sports, and we'll cut down on the juvenile courts. It's better to go hunting with your son than going hunting for him."

This, with emphasis on the sport of baseball, was the enthusiastic recommendation to make better citizens by more attention to the youth of our country in words of Hal Goodnough, speaking before the Sedalia Knife and Fork club meeting in Bothwell Hotel Friday night.

Goodnough, who has three college degrees and was a teacher for 28 years, is essentially a baseball man and acknowledged to be the best good will ambassador the national pastime has ever had. He left a lucrative professorship in Massachusetts to come west to Wisconsin and become the Milwaukee Braves' good will ambassador.

During the past month he has traveled 12,000 miles on 14 airlines to make 25 talks before groups like the one he spoke to here.

Goodnough's belief is that the field of athletics furnishes the elements to make better citizens of our youth, who by guided activity may develop clean minds and strong bodies. He made repeated reference to the handicapped youngsters who became great baseball stars. He praised those who support the Little League endeavor, and called attention to the fact that professional baseball players of today are educated persons who with bat and ball vie with the diplomats to create international understanding by portraying democracy in action.

The speaker gave a rapid fire word picture of the human side of baseball, pointing to the many sacrifices they made which the public hears little about. He urged his listeners to support the youth movement by encouraging boys and girls to participate in athletics, particularly baseball.

The club elected the following new board members: John Ryan, K. U. Love and John Snodgrass, to succeed retiring board members, Harold Barrick, Eva Evans and C. F. Scotten.

C. F. Scotten, president, conducted the meeting. Don Lamm, program chairman, introduced the speaker. Invocation was by Mrs. Virgil Ellis.

New members introduced were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Boyle and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Pittman. J. Albert Dear was a guest of Milton Hinlein.

President Scotten announced the next meeting would be held March 15 when Robert Palmer (another Will Rogers) will speak.

Dallas Ward Says He'll Stay As Buffs' Coach

BOULDER, Colo., Feb. 2 (AP)—Dallas Ward, coach of Colorado University's winner in the New Year's Day Orange Bowl football game, definitely took himself out of the coaching market today.

Ward, who has been mentioned as a possibility for the job as head football coach at the University of Southern California, refused to confirm or deny that report.

"Winning a few football games makes a fellow pretty popular," Ward said. "I have been contacted by several people interested in hiring football coaches. All such contracts were given me in strict confidence and all I can say is that I have elected to remain at the University of Colorado."

Ward came to Colorado in 1948. Three years later, on the recommendation of Robert Stearns, then CU president, and Harry Carlson, athletic director, he was given academic tenure with the rank of full professor.

His salary is $11,000 annually, reportedly the lowest in the Big Seven Conference.

Should Ward be relieved of his duty as head football coach, he would be appointed to the physical education department as a full professor under the tenure rules.

Gremlins Capture Tourney in PBCAA

Pre-Season Slate of 230 Games in NL

CINCINNATI, Feb. 2 (AP)—National League teams will play 230 games even before the official opening of the 1957 baseball season.

The spring training exhibition schedules show National League teams will play 175 games against American League clubs and there will be 55 intra-league contests.

Players are not required to report for spring training until Feb. 28 but in several instances all or some of the athletes will be on hand before that date.

The New York Giants are scheduled to be at full strength at Phoenix, Ariz., on Feb. 25. The St. Louis Cardinals will have the earliest arrivals with part of their squad showing up at St. Petersburg, Fla., on Feb. 14. The full group won't be on hand, however, until March 1.

Some perennial partners will team up for barnstorming exhibition tours. They will be Brooklyn against Milwaukee; Chicago Cubs against the Baltimore Orioles; Cincinnati against Washington; New York Giants against Cleveland; Philadelphia against the Boston Red Sox; the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Detroit Tigers and the Cardinals against the Chicago White Sox.

Cleveland and the Giants will have the most extended series as they play 20 games on a tour that will stretch from coast to coast.

Giardello Sneers Fullmer's Hold On Middle Title

CHICAGO, Feb. 2 (AP)—Joey Giardello, the turbulent thumper who has made a career of stalking the middleweight title, has a scornful opinion of the 160-pound king, Gene Fullmer.

"Fullmer ain't much," Joey said today. "He beat an old man for that title."

Giardello, No. 2 contender in the latest National Boxing Assn. ratings, fights Randy Sandy of New York in a TV 10-rounder at the Chicago Stadium Wednesday night.

In the same stadium ring April 24, Fullmer will make his first title defense against the man he dethroned Jan. 2 in New York, Sugar Ray Robinson.

"Fullmer outwrestled a shaky Sugar Ray," said the 26-year-old Giardello, who has a 64-13-5 record and has won his last 6 bouts.

"That Fullmer just know one way to fight—charge in and brawl. He's strong, but that's about all. He's just the kind of a guy I like to fight."

The NBA ranks only France's Charley Humez ahead of Joey as a contender, with Robinson in the No. 3 spot behind Giardello. The current Ring Magazine ratings, however, have Giardello sixth ranking contender behind Robinson, Humez, Tiger Jones, Spider Webb and Rory Calhoun.

St. Joe Golfer Cops 'Life Begins at 40' Tournament in Texas

HARLINGEN, Tex., Feb. 2 (AP)—Warren Riepen of St. Joseph, Mo., pushed in a 30-foot putt on the 15th hole for a birdie and the championship of the "Life Begins at 40" golf tournament today.

Riepen beat Jack Clark of Brownsville 4 and 3.

It was his second championship in three appearances in the "40 golf" tournament. Last year Riepen was runner-up to David Goldman of Dallas, whom he beat yesterday in a close semi-final match.

Riepen was two holes up and one underpar at the end of seven. He conceded the 8th after his ball landed in the middle of a bush in an almost untouchable position.

The score stayed 1 up for Riepen after Clark three-putted the 9th and won the 10th with a par. Riepen birdied again on the 12th to pull two holes ahead and picked up another before sinking the long putt for a birdie and the match on the 15th.

A record total of 256 men over 40 entered the tournament this year.

Knucklebusters Hold Flying Classes Today

Flying classes for beginners will be held this afternoon at the National Guard Armory by the Knucklebusters Club. The Club organized for fans of model airplane flying hope to encourage others in the sport.

The class starts at 3 o'clock. Experienced fliers will be on hand to give instructions and pass on their knowledge of the sport and handling of planes to these beginners, young and old.

All interested persons should be at the Armory with their models, fuel and batteries early. The classes are to be held as long as interest is shown by the beginners.

Richard Monroe Named Assistant Nebraska Coach

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 2 (AP)—Richard Monroe, 35, Wichita University assistant, was named an assistant football coach at the University of Nebraska today.

Athletic Director Bill Orwig said the university Board of Regents confirmed Monroe's one-year appointment at a salary of $7,000.

Monroe was graduated from the University of Kansas in 1949, coached at Atwood and Columbus, Kan., high schools and subsequently served as an assistant at Kansas and later at Wichita. Orwig said Monroe was coached by George Sauer at Kansas and was rated among the top Jayhawk centers of all time.

Monroe will report to Lincoln Tuesday, Orwig said. He fills one of three vacancies created when Bill Jennings moved up to the head coaching post, succeeding Pete Elliott, and two other assistants, Dee Andros and Gene Stauders, decided to go to California with Elliott.

'Liz' Taylor, Mike Todd Wed

ACAPULCO, Mexico, Feb. 2 (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor, as radiant as in any of her film roles, was married tonight to producer Mike Todd in a tiny tropical village near this famed Mexican resort.

A handful of relatives and close friends, including the 24-year-old bride's parents and brother, and the 45-year-old Todd's son, were the only witnesses.

Singer Eddie Fisher and the Mexican comedian Cantinflas, whose real name is Merio Moreno, were best men. Debbie Reynolds—Mrs. Fisher—was an attendant.

Knob 'B' Team
Scores 45-43
Victory Friday

College High of Warrensburg, a perennial Central Missouri basketball power, was forced to come from behind in the second half Friday night to chalk up another win to its already lengthy list, a 58-49 triumph over a highly-regarded Knob Noster squad on the Knob court.

In an accompanying game, the Knob Noster 'B's' provided consolation by shading the College High 'B's', 45-43.

Warrensburg trailed suspiciously through the first half of the varsity tilt, lagging 29-26 at the midway point. But the visitors found their groove in the second half and pounced on the Knobs 13-8 in the third period and 19-12 in the final stanza to gain a nine-point edge for the victory.

Baile of College High, firing baskets from all angles, netted a total of 27 points for the victors, while Brinkoetter and Grandstaff led Knob with 13 apiece.

Cooper and Staples officiated the game.

WAFB Boxing Coach, Hale, Is Discharged

WAFB Boxing Coach, Hale, Is Discharged

Whiteman Air Force Base's 61 year old boxing coach and outstanding sports figure, S/Sgt. Ernest C. Hale, was discharged last week after more than 27 years of active duty in the Army Air Force.

Sergeant Hale started his service career early in 1916 just in time to serve in the famous Mexican Border War of that year. "Pop", as he is called by his friends, also took part in World War I and II.

After WWI, he started concentrating on his boxing and in 1920 took the All Service Welterweight Championship, a title he was to hold for nine years. The Welterweight ranks, however, failed to give him the competition he desired so he stepped up to the middleweight bracket and held this title from 1923 to 1928.

"Harry Greb is the greatest fighter that ever stepped into a ring," is a statement "Pop" Hale often made; and he should know because he fought Greb and many other greats of that era.

"Pop" made his last appearance in the ring in 1928 when he boxed an exhibition bout with Ken Overland. Old-timers will remember that Overland went on to win the Middleweight title.

After leaving the ring, Hale concentrated his efforts on training amateurs and service teams, building a reputation as one of the best boxing coaches in the service. As a result, he was named to the training staff for the Service Olympic boxers in both 1948 and 1952.

Sergeant Hale came to Whiteman in November of 1955 from Kadema AFB, Okinawa, where he trained many fine boxers. During his long career, "Pop" has coached at Greenville Army Air Base, S. C., Langley AFB, Va., and Scott AFB, Ill., among many others.

After his retirement, Sgt. Hale plans to work as a deputy sheriff in St. Joseph, Missouri.

Alcatraz to College
WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (U) — Pat Henslee, a new student at William and Mary, says the life of a college freshman is not as confining as some she's known recently. For the past six years her life has been a succession of Federal prisons, including two years at Alcatraz. Her dad is a Federal prison official.

Al Lopez, Chicago White Sox manager, started with Tampa, a team in his native town, in 1925.

Sedalia Lions Cage Tourney Set to Open Tuesday Night

Tuesday night the Sedalia Lions Club Annual Invitational Independent Basketball Tourney opens at the Horace Mann school. Four games are scheduled for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with the semi-finals on Friday, and finals for Saturday night.

The time of the games will be 6:30, 7:45, 9:00 and 10:15 the first three days, and 8:00 and 9:30 on the two final nights.

Basketball fans will not be for the want of stars of recent seasons. The teams entered have stars from all over and plenty of action is anticipated in every game to be played.

Jim Toner, 6-8 center of the Superior Cleaners, Warrensburg, is what that team is built around with Sam Wiggins, forward, Bob Fetterling, John McFarland and Bill George of Kansas City, and others. It is considered one of the strong contenders in the tournament.

The team meets Windsor Gamble Store in the opening game. Windsor is composed mostly of former Windsor high school players. The Windsor aggregation is a fast group and can cause plenty of trouble in the tournament.

In the second game, plenty of action can be expected when Hamm's Beer of Sedalia clashes with Marshall. The Marshall aggregation is a short team but a fast playing one and boasts a season record of 16-2.

Hamm's has some old local favorites around in Buddy Homan, former top Smith-Cotton scorer; Francis Giger, Missouri Valley; Chuck Branson and Johnny Lennox, formerly with CMSC; Gene Sully, former M. U. Tiger; Bob Decker and Scribner, both whose eligibility ended this semester at Missouri Valley; Green Ridge coach Kenneth Anderson, and 'old' Buddy Thomas, former S-C star. The third game brings together Eolia and Lee's Summit. Eolia has Jack Faszhole, who fans will recall played with the old Faber team which created the thrills in past tournaments. With him are several of the old Faber players.

Lee's Summit has Francis Titus, high school coach and former Missouri Valley Star, in the lineup with John Troy, 6-8 center, surrounded with other impressive players. Anything can happen in this tilt.

In the fourth game Tuesday, the Warsaw Lions and the Warrensburg Independents clash.

Warsaw has a hustling team and provides plenty of competition for any team it meets.

Warsburg boasts the membership of Jim Hutchinson, 6-4 former Moberly Junior College star and Jim Phillips, 6-4, formerly of Memphis State.

The games Wednesday are also star-studded.

Windsor's International meet Hughesville, the latter team having in its lineup such well-known local players as Shireman, J. D. Gregory, Norfleet and still one of the four Charles brothers. It will be recalled Hughesville upset Budweiser the past week in the Concordia tournament, 52-51.

In the second game, Budweiser meets Clinton. The local Budweiser team has Bill Holst, former Smith-Cotton and M. U. cage star, and Bob Hughes who has been averaging 20 points a game.

The third contest will see Fayette and California clash. Little has been said about Fayette whose lineup and roster has not been received. California has built its team around a terrific star in Bud Heineman, a former student of Jim Ball at Versailles and a stand-out performer at the University, averaging 30 points per game to date.

Whiteman AFB, considered one of the favorites, apparently has slowed down in recent games. The roster of the team has not been received and there likely has been some changes, which will be known when the airmen play Tusculumbia.

Tusculumbia has been known for years as having a hard playing aggregation. Nothing is known of them for this season to date, but their entrance was made on the strength they had a good chance to win. Tusculumbia has studied out the records of some of the teams, it is understood, and is anxious to get in the swim.

Syracuse football backs Jim Brown and Jim Ridlon also are members of the Orange lacrosse team.

Grandmother Hits All-Time High

Mrs. Jewell Carson, Vic Scott Set Bowling Marks for Season

Mrs. Jewell Carson and Vic Scott each erased season high single game standards this past week in the men's and ladies' leagues at the Sedalia Bowling Lanes.

In addition to setting the new season high with a tremendous 251 pin performance, Mrs. Carson, 14 times a grandmother, also established a new all-time high for women on the local lanes. She started her game with spares in the first three frames, but then scored strikes from the fourth through the tenth frames. In the extra frame, Mrs. Carson managed eight pins.

Vic Scott fired a great 279 game which broke Bill Shockey's previous season high of 266 pins. A ten pin tap on an apparent "strike" hit in the sixth frame robbed Scott of a perfect score. He picked-up the lone remaining pin for a spare and resumed his dead-eye strike shooting in each remaining frame.

Scott coupled games of 154 and 199 with his 279 high for a 632-pin series, high for the week in over-all league competition. On the strength of Scott's 279 game, Fowler's Insurance Agency team also racked-up high team game for the week with a total of 991 pins.

The Rev. Walter Strickert chalked-up the second high individual game of the week with a commendable 235 which anchored a 592 series. Other high games were registered by Perk Dieckhaus, 223; Ken Pabst, 221; Bob Scott, Don Patton, and Bob Young, all scoring 222-in games.

John Larma had the only other 600-plus series with a 606. Other top series included: John Hazell, 593, 570 and 576; Stub Studer, 571; Jim Taylor, 569; Louis Heuerman, 580; Don Patton, 580; Oscar Thoman, 574 and 582; and Ben Bennette, 572.

In the women's competition Jo Stedronsky had the top series score with 542 pins on games of 187, 168 and 187. Helen Oswald was in the runner-up spot with games of 171, 172 and 174 for a 517 series. Jewell Carson had a 508 series with games of 131 and 126

Tipton Lions Celebrate 15th Year

January 28 marked the 15th anniversary of the Tipton Lions Club, and the occasion was celebrated with a Ladies Night meeting at the American Legion Home. About 90 members and guests enjoyed a ham and chicken dinner.

Following the dinner, President Frank J. Gerbes welcomed the guests and recounted some of the outstanding projects sponsored by the Club. Most notable of these have been the sponsoring of a Boy Scout Troop, installing lights on the new athletic field of Monticau County School District R-VI Tipton, the latter at a cost of $2,600. On behalf of the Boy Scouts, W. W. Wisdom presented a plaque to the Lions for their sponsorship and help.

District Governor J. A. Conn was presented and conducted installation of three new members: B. A. Hainen, Glen Pettigrew, and Fred Imhoff.

State Secretary V. H. Bradshaw of Jefferson City, presented certificates and chevrons to four members of the Tipton Club as 10-Year old Monarchs: Albert H. Wolf, E. A. Norman, Dr. H. P. Stonner, and D. C. Bixler. Because of a recent injury, Mr. Bixler was unable to attend, and Mrs. Bixler accepted the award for him.

President Gerbes then introduced International Counsellor Joe Knollmeyer, of Linn, Special recognition was given to Charter Members J. J. Brant, J. A. Conn, Frank J. Gerbes, Frank J. Quigley, L. W. Billingsley, Jack H. Needy, W. W. Wisdom, Jr., Al Martin, and Fred W. Schmidt. Six of these original charter members were awarded 15-Year Old Monarch chevrons: Lions Brant, Conn, Gerbes, Martin, Schmidt, and Quigley. They were congratulated by Lion Knollmeyer for their years of service to the Club and the community, and were urged to continue the public-spirited work they have done through the past 15 years.

Club Secretary C. M. White and Mrs. White presented the club with a plaque listing the names of the presidents who had served since the organization of the club. Space is provided for additional presidents who will serve during the next 15 years.

Teen-Agers Admit to Careless Driving; Blame the Adults Too

This grim reminder that one of their friends was killed in the wreck was displayed by students on a college campus.

By EUGENE GILBERT

Most teen-agers admit they're slightly careless drivers and consider higher auto insurance rates for themselves justified. Nevertheless, they've just got to have that jalopy lest their social standing collapse.

Evidence that today's mechanized youngster thinks life without wheels hardly worth living — as shown by our latest nationwide survey on teen-agers' views — is far less surprising than the fact that 7 out of 10 meekly conceded they were poorer insurance risks than Mom and Dad.

Other points brought out: Most teens don't think that use of cars encourages moral laxity. "Anything you can do in a car," Claude Erbson of New York City explained, "you can do at home." Virtually all youngsters insist that parents ought to make the family car available to junior; and the great majority believe they should be permitted to own a car if they can pay for it.

On the subject of highway safety, most youngsters attributed the relatively high accident rate in the hot rod set to plain carelessness or lack of driving experience.

Said a 16-year-old Tuscaloosa, Ala., girl: "I feel we teen-agers are a little reckless but most of us not excessively. Maybe it's just youthful exuberance."

But there were pointed minority views. "You'll find just as many adults who are poor drivers as teens," objected Ruth Clayton of Little Rock, Ark. A 17-year-old Boston, Mass., girl contended permitting young people to drive enhances their sense of responsibility.

Some suggested stern remedies. "If teens drive recklessly, their licenses should be taken away," said a 15-year-old girl from New Haven, Conn. A 17-year-old Kansas City lass thought driver education courses should be required in public high schools.

Twenty-one per cent of the boys and four per cent of the girls admitted that their friends sometimes dared them to take chances at the wheel. And three-fourths of the boys answered yes to a question if they'd continue to ride with a friend who drove recklessly. On the other hand 59 per cent of the girls vowed they'd get out of the car and walk under such nerve-racking circumstances.

But careless or not, fully 51 per cent of the boys and 35 per cent of the girls rated driving as "essential" to their existence. Another came out staunchly in favor of youth. State laws on licensing vary, specifying limits from 15 years up. Unlike most state legislatures, 38 per cent of the boys felt youngsters of 15 and even younger should be entitled to drive. Twenty-two per cent of the girls agreed.

Three-fourths of boys surveyed said they'd continue to ride with reckless friends while the majority of girls said they would not.

Forty-nine per cent of the boys and 40 per cent of the girls fixed 16 years as the proper limit, while the rest preponderantly favored 18.

A whopping majority (male 78 and female 64 per cent) thought they should be allowed to drive alone at night as well as during daytime. The survey also showed that 43 per cent of the boys—63

The color trend first of all is an overall shift to slightly soft and muted colors. Beige or sandalwood has come to the forefront. It holds a top place in paints, upholstery, fabrics... even in telephones, typewriters, sweepers, etc.

Grays are shifting to warmer variations of taupe. Turquoise is popular now and an advance guard of a general rise to blues.

The great green era is on the wane. Soft, mellow fern greens are preferred and the deep greens have pretty well vanished.

Peach tones will rise in favor of the expense of pink.

Keep these trends in mind when color planning this spring.

Darlyn Heisterberg Becomes Bride Of Lloyd Dean Weathers

At six o'clock in the evening of January 27 Miss Darlyn Heisterberg exchanged wedding vows with Lloyd Dean Weathers at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Cole Camp. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. J. Gerike before a chancel setting of bouquets of white flowers and lighted tapers in candelabra.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Heisterberg, Cole Camp, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ramie Weathers, 1420 South Missouri.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin and lace floor length gown. The fitted bodice featured a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves which came to points over the hands. The lace extended into the full skirt and formed points above the tiers of nylon net ruffles. Her waist length veil cascaded from a sequin covered crown and she carried a bouquet of red roses and white daisies. The bride's jewelry was a pearl necklace, gift from the bridegroom, and gold earrings, which were worn by her great-grandmother on her wedding day 81 years ago.

Color is very important in your wardrobe at any time, but I think in the spring it more so than ever. Navy of course, is always considered a spring color and this year it is at the near top of the list. Navy dresses trimmed in white, polka dots or just self trimmed are found in all dress departments. Suits both in wool and acetate fabrics including linen are smart. The beige to yellow tones is another important class of colors. There is nothing like a beige suit or dress in your basic wardrobe. Wear any color accessories, wear it anywhere and you will be smart and have that extra feminine look. There is something delicate and warm about this group of shades and it is worth looking into. Of course, a lighter shade of green, lilac and purple are also good colors. Grey also seems to be making a very strong comeback this season. Another important clue for spring wardrobe is the tweed fabric. All that is tweed is not wool this season. You will find both acetate and cotton in this fabric. Dresses, suits and skirts as well as dusters are being fashioned from it. You will like it I know, so include some of it in your spring and summer wardrobe.

High Employment Continues Into 1957; Some Report Peak

WASHINGTON (AP)—High industrial employment during 1956 apparently is carrying over into 1957.

The Labor Department said yesterday employers in almost three-fourths of the nation's 149 major industrial areas anticipate some additions to their payrolls by mid-March.

Information reaching the department's bureau of employment security indicates that the aircraft, construction, apparel, chemical and machinery industries among others, expect to take on more workers in early spring. There also was evidence of continued improvement in the automobile industry, the department said.

USDA Reports Slight Raise In Farm Prices; Farmers Also Pay More

WASHINGTON (AP)—A slight new boost in farm prices has raised the mid-January level to 5 per cent above a year ago.

The Agriculture Department reported yesterday that average prices of farm products rose four-tenths of 1 per cent between mid-December and Jan. 15.

It also reported that prices paid by farmers reached a new high during that same period, rising two-thirds of 1 per cent. The mid-January level of prices paid by farmers, was 3.7 per cent above that of a year ago.

The new increase in prices received still left the level 27.8 per cent below the record in February 1951. The December-January boost resulted primarily from substantial increases in prices of meat animals and smaller rises in prices of fruits and grains.

Higher farm costs were attributed mainly to increased commodity prices, boosted interest and farm wage rates, and real estate tax rises.

Phone Company Says Ice Causes Damage Totalling $975,000

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Southwest Bell Telephone Co. says freezing rain and snow which disrupted telephone service in 77 towns in sections of four states caused damage totaling $975,000.

Harshest hit, the utility said last night, were southeast Missouri and northeast Arkansas as near Jonesboro and Paragould. Also damaged were west and north Texas and parts of Oklahoma near Durant.

A spokesman for the utility said the damage would have been worse if the firm hadn't spent about 19 million dollars last year storm-proofing its long distance lines with underground cables. These cables were used to replace some knocked down lines in Missouri.

More than 1,000 employees and several private contractors were sent to the icy areas to restore service.

Singer Yearns For His Ranch In California

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — Carrying more than his "16 tons" for NBC these days is likable Ernie Ford, generally known as Tennessee.

This is a great season for singing Tennesseans (Elvis Presley, Pat Boone, etc.), and Ernie is no exception. He's been hitting it big in daytime TV for a couple of years, and last fall he made the big jump to a Thursday night show.

The result has been highly successful. Backed by the adept Walter Schumann Singers, Ernie has put forth a show that has attracted enthusiastic viewers. The ratings have been mighty good for a new show, especially one opposite the powerhouse Playhouse 90.

"I think we're hitting our stride pretty good now," Ernie opined between rehearsals. "I believe we've got a show that is good as well as commercial."

"It's a lot more commercial than when we started out. You know how it is—you always put down a bigger milk pail than the cow can give."

If Ernie looks like a pooped peapicker these days, it's understandable. It's no small matter putting on six half-hour shows a week. He gets some respite by kinescoping his Thursday daytime show. But the schedule keeps him tied down most of the time.

That doesn't set too well with Ernie, who yearns for his ranch in Lake County of northern California. Since the nighttime show began last fall, he's been there only twice—and then for one-day visits.

"I'm not the kind of entertainer whose career means everything," he remarked. "My boys are 4 and 7 now, and that's the age when they need some attention. If they don't think much of their father at this age, they ain't going to when they grow up either."

"I'd like to cut down on the daytime show, but that presents a problem. I've got a fine relationship with the sponsors, and I'd like it to continue. I've got a loyalty to them, but I've got a loyalty to my family as well."

Tipton Fair Association Elects Board

An election of the 1957 fair board was held at the Tipton Farmers Bank, Saturday, Jan. 26.

The following persons were elected to the board of directors: Aquin Kline, Roscoe Gibson, John Dueber, Archie Morlock, Andy Hartman, Wilbur Knipp, Paul Orscheln, Frank Gerbes and Ernest Knipp.

The Tipton Fair Association has made some real progress since its beginning some ten years ago. Last year it became a member of the Little Dixie Horse Show Circuit, and horses showed from all sections of Missouri and one stable from Kansas.

The Tipton Swine show for 1956 was one of the best in both quality and numbers, of any in the area. The Beef Cattle show was larger than that of previous years and shows promise of becoming one of the better shows of the area.

The nominating committee pointed out the fact that the membership in the Tipton Fair Association should be increased. There has not been a membership drive in several years. Many of the original members have moved from the area and many persons who have entered the community in the past ten years have not become members, because they have not been contacted. This condition should be corrected. If you are not a member would you please see one of the new fair board directors and purchase a membership in the Fair Association.

An organizational meeting of the fair board directors will be held in the near future.

Missouri University Cuts Budget Request By Sum of $764,358

JEFFERSON CITY — The University of Missouri has cut its budget request by $764,358, giving Gov. James T. Blair Jr. a pleasant surprise.

"I hope the Legislature can find other departments that can get along with less money," he said after Dr. Elmer Ellis, university president, gave him the good news.

The cuts, all in general revenue, represent $327,500 less for the university's salary fund and $38,000 less for agricultural experiment station salaries, making the university's total request $9,306,650.

Operations funds for the new University Medical Center were cut by $349,858, making the total $3,288,900. And $9,000 was cut from the Rolla School of Mines salary fund, making that school's total $1,306,500.

House Group Recommends Money for SS

WASHINGTON — The House Appropriations Committee has recommended 275 million dollars to pay for improved social security benefits voted by the last Congress.

It included that amount in a catch-all bill calling for $335,090,000 in supplemental funds for the remaining five months of the current fiscal year. The over-all total was $46,997,500 less than President Eisenhower had requested.

The extra funds for the social boost to $1,575,000,000 the amount provided for the program for the fiscal year ending next June 30.

The committee set aside an extra 15 million dollars for emergency conservation measures in drought-stricken states. The President had asked for 25 millions for this purpose, but the committee said the lesser sum would be enough for the five months remaining in this fiscal year.

It recommended that authority of the Agriculture Department to make farm ownership loans be hiked by 20 million dollars, bringing the total for this purpose to $4 millions for the year.

Also approved was an increase of 45 million dollars in revolving loan funds for the Small Business Administration.

Here's the bomb

THAT BROKE THE

"low-price" lineup!

This big high-stepping Chieftain started a revolution with a carload of "firsts" and an eye-popping price tag!

The low-price field never looked like this before! The handsome husky you see right here has the boat still rocking... with more power, more wheelbase, more room—and more sheer pride of ownership—than ever before possible on a well-trained budget! Just look at what they're making room for now in the low-price lineup: a strapping 347 cu. in., 10 to 1 compression ratio Strato-Streak V-8... a whopping, road-hugging 122 inches of wheelbase and an all-new suspension system for a Level-Line Ride that's next best thing to a magic carpet! And this streamlined beauty takes on the field with more than six dozen "firsts", all proved by 100,000 of the roughest, toughest test miles a group of facts-minded engineers could devise! If this sounds like a wonderful buy—it certainly is! Our advice is to stop dreaming and price it! At a cost less than a lot of the low-price jobs, this newcomer is making big-time buyers out of former "all-three" owners!

Milkman's Route Has Problems

COLUMBUS, Ohio (U-P) — "Dear Milkman: We don't want our milk every day. We want our milk like this. Today we want milk. Tomorrow we don't, and the next day will be like the day before the day after tomorrow."

Confusing?

According to milkman Harry B. Vance, who receives notes like the one above, sometimes it "takes a little figuring." Disregarding the last part of the last sentence, Vance finally figured the note meant to bring milk on alternate days.

But deciphering notes is only one of his problems. He also has certain chores connected with it. Like the note that began: "Dear Milkman: Would you do me a little favor. Start my car. It's stalled in front of the house."

Another: "It was sweet of you to take in my washing yesterday when it rained."

And another: "We are going on a vacation so don't leave any milk until the 28th. On the 28th please start the refrigerator on normal."

In some homes, where both husband and wife are working, Vance has the additional duty of placing the milk in the refrigerator so it won't spoil. He carries 38 keys for that many different homes.

How he remembers which key fits which lock is just one of "all those things you've got to remember," he confides.

Vance, father of four children, has been a milkman 15 years. He services two routes with 500 customers for the Hamilton Milk Co.

And he takes in stride the many things people expect of him.

One note to him read: "Please lock the dog in the cellar and pour some milk in the cat's dish." It was done.

Another note asked him to leave "two quarts of sanforized milk." Vance pondered awhile before figuring out the customer meant "homogenized."

Then there was the message that

To Mark 47th Anniversary
Boy Scout Week in February

Boy Scout Week, marking the 47th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America, will be observed from Wednesday, Feb. 6 through Tuesday, Feb. 12. It is the largest youth observance in the nation since it will be celebrated in every city and town and most villages and hamlets throughout the nation by 4,500,000 boys and adult leaders.

Twelve outstanding Explorers, older boy members of the organization, will be chosen to go to Washington, D. C., to make the annual "Report to the Nation." They will call at the White House.

Federal officials, including leaders from the House and Senate, will join with representatives of national organizations at a breakfast in Washington, D. C., at which the twelve Explorers will report on Scouting's accomplishments for 1956 and tell of the activities planned for this year, including the Fourth National Jamboree to be held next July 12 to 18 at historic Valley Forge, Pennsylvania.

Other outstanding Explorers, together with Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and adult leaders, will participate in ceremonies at state capitals and at city hall and town observances.

Boy Scout Week this year sees the production of the fifteen millionth copy of the "Handbook for Boys". Especially bound, it will be presented to President Eisenhower who is Honorary President of the Boy Scouts of America.

A limited number of handbooks in this printing will have a distinctive and decorative four-page inset commemorating this landmark in the publishing of a book which has enjoyed sales second only to the Holy Bible in the years since 1910 when it was first published. It is this volume that introduced millions of boys to their first knowledge of nature lore, first aid, proper honors for the United States Flag, and a wide range of "know how" supplementing school courses.

Every governor is to be presented a copy of the limited edition, and in some communities it is planned to present copies in recognition of unselfish and dedicated service to the boys of America. Among them will be leaders in government, education, the clergy, sciences, business, industry, civic, and other community organizations.

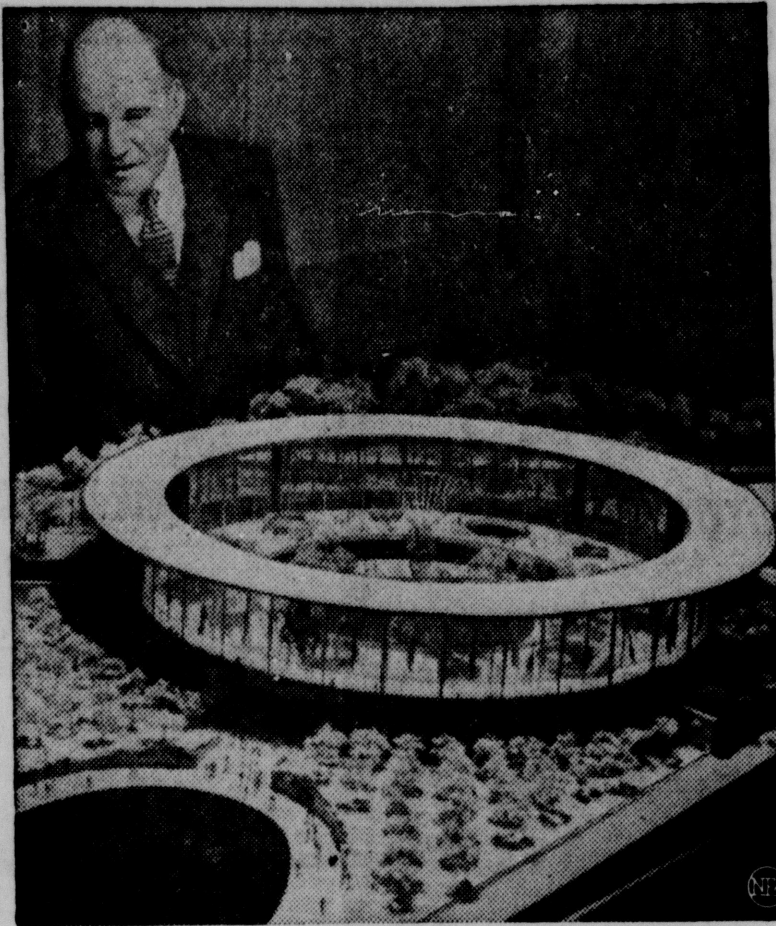

Boy Scout Week finds the organization completing the first year of its new Four-Year Program known as "Onward for God and My Country," through which it seeks to train more boys in patriotism and character so that they will become intelligent citizens with an appreciation of the free way of life and a dedication to high spiritual ideals.

The theme emphasis for Boy Scout Week — "Duty to Country" will present opportunities to Scouts and their leaders to highlight the democratic processes of government and their values, and the spirit of service as a natural expression of good citizenship.

Most of the nation's 40,500 Cub packs with 1,680,000 Cub Scouts, will hold "Blue and Gold banquets" which are really potluck dinners with each family bringing a part of the menu. These 8, 9 and 10-year old members follow a home-centered program in their homes and backyards. They will prepare skits, displays and take on service projects for neighborhood school assemblies and churches.

Most of the 55,500 Boy Scout troops with 1,155,000 members 11, 12 and 13-years old will recognize the individual advancement and achievements at annual parents' and Scouts' dinners. During the month they will mark the 100th anniversary of the birth of the founder of Scouting, the late Lord Robert Baden-Powell, which birthday occurs on February 22.

Explorers in the 15,000 Explorer units and in Explorer crews in troops, with their 465,000 members 14 years and older, will observe Boy Scout Week in many ways. Some will address school assemblies, PTA meetings, service clubs, and radio and television audiences. Others will be guests on special vocational tours seeing the manufacturing of many products, learning first hand how airports, railroads, newspapers, and broadcast stations operate.

A FAIR START—Europeans will get a view of life in the United States at the Brussels World Fair in 1958. Edward Stone, the architect, unveils in New York a scale model of the United States Pavilion. The five-million-dollar structure, 95 feet high, will be the largest free-span building in the world. An adjacent theater will seat 1,000.

Columnist Dreams King
Visits Average US Home

NEW YORK (AP)—I had a crazy dream last night. Real crazy. We were sitting in the living room when the front door chimed. My wife said, "If it's that salesman again, you handle it."

I opened the door and there he was, in person, tall, bearded, smiling, imposing in his long robes — King Saud of Saudi Arabia. He was, of course, surrounded by his 70 fellow travelers, including the guards with gold sabers and tommy guns. They filled up the walk and two-thirds of the dead crab grass.

An interpreter explained that the King thought it might be informative if he could drop in, unannounced, at an average American home. See how Americans live, that kind of thing. I said come in and they did, most of them.

Eight guards remained out front standing guard on the dead crab grass. Eight others slipped around the back to case the yard. The others filed into the living room and it quickly filled up like a crowded cocktail party in costume. Saber sheaths clanked against furniture. We lost two small vases.

I introduced my family. My wife looked faint. The two girls gawked. The younger one, a ham who has learned all about Moslem etiquette from TV, made a broken-legged curtsy and murmured exotically, "Sahib." Her sister kicked her.

"This is your only wife?" the King asked politely through his interpreter.

"The one and only," I laughed. "But surely there are others — other women who..."

"Oh, no, no, no," I hiccupped. "That small vehicle out there — it is some kind of small Cadillac?"

"Oh, no, just an old Plymouth." The King said it must have been made in Europe. I said it was made in America, that we make many cars besides Cadillacs. An aide noted that down. The King, after a pause, asked, "How much oil do you possess?"

"At the moment, I'd guess, about 200."

"Wells or fields?"

"No, 200 gallons, in the basement tank."

The aide was taking notes furiously by now. The King's ears suddenly perked up. "You keep animals in your home," he asked.

I explained that the sound he heard came from the kids' record player upstairs. I decided not to explain about Elvis Presley.

"Drink, gentlemen?" I asked, rubbing my palms together in my best suburban host manner. "We have scotch and—" It was my wife who kicked me this time. She remembered, from the papers, that the King didn't drink.

There was an awkward pause and to fill it, I invited the visitors to dinner. The King said he would be delighted. Getting up off the floor, my wife made some choking noises, excused us, and dragged me into the kitchen.

"Listen, Mr. Dulles," she hissed, "You gone crazy?"

I suggested she dash out to the delicatessen and lay off the hot pastrami. Just then an aide came in and explained that only the King would be dining with us. My wife said, in that case, fine, he could share our tuna fish casserole.

Two official tasters came in and tried the casserole. One paled under his robes, the other shuddered. Some mumbled Arabic passed excitedly between them. Shortly after, the King and his

Senators Sponsor
Bills for Treatment
Of Narcotic Addicts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four senators are co-sponsors of bills they said would improve the federal program for treatment of drug addicts and encourage state programs.

Three bills were introduced by Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.), and co-sponsored by Sens. Langer (R-ND), Hennings (D-Mo) and Payne (R-Maine).

The bills would: provide federal treatment for drug patients released from federal hospitals; authorize the use of federal funds by states in developing treatment programs; provide for an advisory committee on drug addiction, and authorize establishment of a public health service hospital on the west coast for treatment of addicts.

party left. Something was said about having to get back to the Arabian Embassy.

"Well!" my wife snapped. "I hope we don't lose those air bases," I said.

It "corners" with all the solid assurance of an honest-to-goodness sports car. Chevy doesn't throw its weight around on turns because it carries its pounds in the right places.
